

"When I became a Sigma Chi it was great; I was proud of the association. It was kind of an instant confidence builder for me, that, and what I considered the best fraternity on campus, had actually wanted me. I had always been very shy and without a lot of confidence. It was a really good social experience, and for me, a social maturation and a great benefit.

David Letterman—Ball State, '69. (Talk show host)

"Horizons challenges us on so many different dimensions—mentally and physically. It takes you out of your comfort zone and forces you to grow in ways you never thought possible."

Patrick Causey—North Florida, '07 (Undergraduate)

"Sigma Chi was one of the greatest things that happened to me."

Mike Ditka—Pitt, '61 (NFL Coach and Sportscaster)

The Spirit of Sigma Chi

Spirit of Sigma Chi, as conceived by the founders more than a century ago, is based on the theory that friendship among members possessing different temperaments, talents and convictions is superior to the friendship among members having the same temperaments, talents and convictions and that genuine friendship can be maintained without surrendering the principle of individuality or sacrificing one's personal judgment.
